

Jump-Start Your Career in Manufacturing

Fast-Track to CNC Manufacturing

Through this Real Jobs RI paid training program offered by CCRI, you will prepare for a rewarding career in manufacturing, one of Rhode Island's fastest growing industries. Earn free college credits toward your Associate's Degree in Advanced Manufacturing while being paid to learn the skills employers are looking for right now in this two-phase advanced manufacturing boot camp.

More Information: <https://bit.ly/3lveF7H>

SAMI

(Shipbuilding / Marine Trades and Advanced Manufacturing Institute at NEIT)

SAMI was established by New England Institute of Technology to train students in an intensive, customized 300-hour machinist training program. SAMI trains skilled entry-level individuals who are reliable and productive workers and connects them with local employers.

More Information: <https://bit.ly/3ytbPUr>

We Make RI

We Make RI offers free high quality skills training and support services for Rhode Islanders seeking to start or advance their manufacturing career. They specialize in training for Production Technicians, NC Machinists, CNC Machinists, and Industrial Sewing. They also offer apprenticeships to help you level up your career. Whether you are a just graduating high school, looking to change careers or advance your existing career, We Make RI can help!

More Information: <https://bit.ly/3C8xymO>

Skills for RI

Skills for RI is the number one source for manufacturing job postings. They list hundreds of jobs looking for immediate hire. By coaching and matching unemployed and underemployed Rhode Islanders with recruiters, Skills for RI quickly gets workers placed in new positions.

More Information: <https://bit.ly/2TVbPh5>